Discover our place at your own pace.

Mike the Tiger Habitat

Come face-to-whisker with LSU's beloved live mascot in his paradise habitat! Watch Mike VII lounge beneath his majestic oak tree, splash in his refreshing waterfall, or prowl his lush domain—all within this state-of-the-art wildlife sanctuary on campus. Mike and his habitat are maintained and cared for by LSU's prestigious Veterinarian School.

@MikeTheTiger_LSU

The Old Governor's Mansion

Walk the halls where Louisiana's most colorful political figures once lived, including the legendary Huey P. Long. This 1930s architectural gem reveals fascinating behind-the-scenes stories of power, personality, and Louisiana's vibrant political theater.

FFS (225) 342-9778 | @LA.OldGovernorsMansion

Southern University Museum of Art

Celebrate the triumphs of pioneering African American artists who broke barriers and preserved cultural heritage through extraordinary creative vision. Eight captivating galleries showcase powerful works that tell stories of perseverance, identity, and artistic freedom. By appointment only.

(225) 771-4513

USS Kidd Veterans Museum

Honor America's naval heroes while exploring Louisiana's rich military legacy. Discover the shoreside museum's impressive P-40 aircraft, detailed ship models, immersive WWI trench exhibit, and moving tributes to the brave men and women who served our nation.

$ (225) 342-1942 | @USSKIDD_DD661

Find Your Pace

Scan this code for additional Baton Rouge attractions and experiences.

Tag us @VisitBatonRouge

Visit Baton Rouge

VisitBatonRouge.com

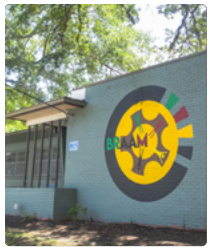

Visit Baton Rouge

Museums & Attractions

Baton Rouge African American Museum

Immerse yourself in powerful stories of triumph and achievement at the Baton Rouge African American Museum. Discover extraordinary African sculptures, rare rural artifacts, and groundbreaking inventions while experiencing vibrant cultural celebrations that bring history to life.

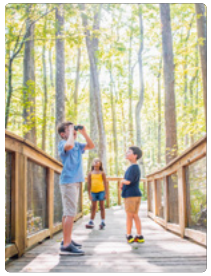

$ (225) 244-9474 | @BRAAMuseum

BREC's Baton Rouge Zoo

Roam with exotic creatures from around the globe at Louisiana's first AZA-accredited zoo! Get up-close with fascinating wildlife, enjoy immersive habitats, and create unforgettable family memories at the wild Baton Rouge adventure.

$ (225) 775-3877 | @BatonRougeZoo

BREC's Bluebonnet Swamp Nature Center

Enjoy Louisiana's enchanting wilderness without leaving the city. Trek through elevated boardwalks that wind through cypress-tupelo swamps and lush forests. Encounter native wildlife, marvel at fascinating natural artifacts, and discover the hidden wonders of Louisiana's unique ecosystems.

$ (225) 757-8905 | @BRECParks

BREC's Magnolia Mound: Museum and Historic Site

Step back to 1790s French Creole Louisiana at this meticulously restored historical home. Watch open-hearth cooking demonstrations, explore authentic outbuildings, and marvel at one of Louisiana's finest collections of period furnishings across 15 historic acres.

$ FFS (225) 343-4955 | BRECMagnoliaMound

Capitol Park Museum, A Louisiana State Museum

Dive into the soul of Louisiana through captivating exhibits that showcase our distinctive culture, revolutionary history, and groundbreaking innovations. Experience the stories that shaped both our state and nation in this downtown treasure trove of discovery.

$ (225) 342-5428 | @LAStateMuseum

Knock Knock Children's Museum

Watch imaginations soar in this wonderland of hands-on discovery! From mini grocery stores to construction zones, kids become the heroes of their own learning adventures while building critical skills through the magic of play.

$ (225) 388-3090 | @KnockKnockChildrensMuseum

Louisiana Art & Science Museum / Irene W. Pennington Planetarium

Journey from masterful art galleries to the cosmic wonders of a full-dome planetarium in this historic riverside depot. Day or night, prepare to be dazzled by rotating exhibitions, stargazing experiences, and after-hours events that ignite curiosity.

$ FFS (225) 344-5272 | @LASMBR

Louisiana's Old State Capitol

Enter the "Castle on the River" and be transported into Louisiana's colorful political past. This Gothic architectural marvel overlooking the Mississippi River houses fascinating exhibits that bring the state's dramatic political history to vivid life.

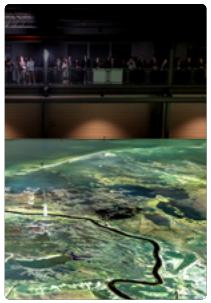

FFS (225) 342-0500 | @LAOldStateCapitol

Louisiana State Capitol

Ascend America's tallest state capitol for breathtaking panoramic views of Baton Rouge! Discover how Governor Huey P. Long's ambitious vision created this towering symbol of Louisiana pride and strength that continues to inspire visitors today.

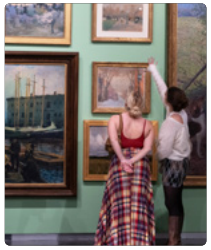

(225) 342-7317

LSU Center for River Studies at the Water Campus

Witness the mighty Mississippi in miniature at one of the world's largest movable bed river models! Explore interactive exhibits revealing the dramatic story of Louisiana's changing coastline and the groundbreaking efforts to preserve our precious wetlands. Currently, The Center for River Studies (River Model) is open for groups of ten or more, by appointment only.

$ FFS (225) 709-1743 | @louisianacpra

LSU Museum of Art at Shaw Center for the Arts

Float above downtown in this fifth-floor artistic sanctuary showcasing magnificent Southern masterpieces alongside world-class touring exhibitions. Experience the South's cultural legacy through extraordinary paintings, sculptures, and decorative treasures.

$ FFS (225) 578-3000 | @LSUMOA

LSU Rural Life Museum

Travel through time across 440 acres of historic buildings, lush gardens, and rural charm. Explore authentic 18th and 19th century Louisiana life at the Rural Life Museum, wander the elegant Windrush Gardens, and discover botanical wonders throughout the grounds.

$ (225) 765-2437 | @LSURLM

Legend

- $ Admission fee charged. Discounts may be available.
- Contains a museum store/gift shop.
- FFS First Free Sunday - enjoy free admission the first Sunday of every month.
- Appointment suggested. Call the phone number associated with the location.